

March 31, 1942.

Miss Mabel E. BeaudHuy,
2309 Seventh Ave.,
New York City.

Dear Miss BeaudHuy:

I should have written you sooner, but I have been out of the City on baseball business.

I want to thank you for attempting to get the information that I asked you for, but due to the fact Mr. Manley needed the car immediately he had to take the trip to New York and have the matter taken care of.

Again please accept my thanks.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ